By the Deputy Chief, Telecommunications Access Policy Division:

Revised Filing Dates:

Comments Due: April 18, 2003Reply Comments Due: May 16, 2003

1. In this Order, we grant requests from AT&T Corp. and WorldCom, Inc., for an extension of time to file comments and reply comments in response to a recent staff study on proposals to reform the Commission's universal service contribution methodology.' We also grant Sprint's request that parties be permitted to file a single document in response to the Universal Service Contribution Methodology Second Further Notice and the Staff Study Public Notice.²

On December 12, 2002, the Commission adopted modifications to the current revenue-based system for assessing contributions to the federal universal service mechanisms to ensure the sufficiency and predictability of universal service while it considers reforms to sustain the universal service fund for the long term.³ In addition to seeking comment on whether to retain a revenue-based system, the Commission invited comment on specific aspects of three connection-based proposals.⁴ The comment and reply comment dates for the Universal Service Contribution Methodology Second Further Notice are February 28, 2003, and April 18, 2003, respectively. On February 26, 2003, the Commission released a staff study that estimates potential assessment levels under the newly modified revenue-based system and three connection-based proposals to facilitate discussion and analysis of alternative contribution methodologies.⁵ The comment and reply comment dates for the Staff Study Public Notice are March 31, 2003, and April 18, 2003, respectively.

3. We hereby grant AT&T Corp.'s and WorldCom, Inc.'s request for extension of time to file comments and reply comments in response to the Staff Study Public Notice. It is the policy of the Commission that extensions of time are not routinely granted.⁶ We find, however, that there is good cause to extend the due dates for filing comments and reply comments to the Staff Study Public Notice. We understand that the Lotus spreadsheet that accompanies the staff study was not available for downloading from the Commission's website due to technical difficulties during the week of March 17, 2003. We also believe that granting a modest
